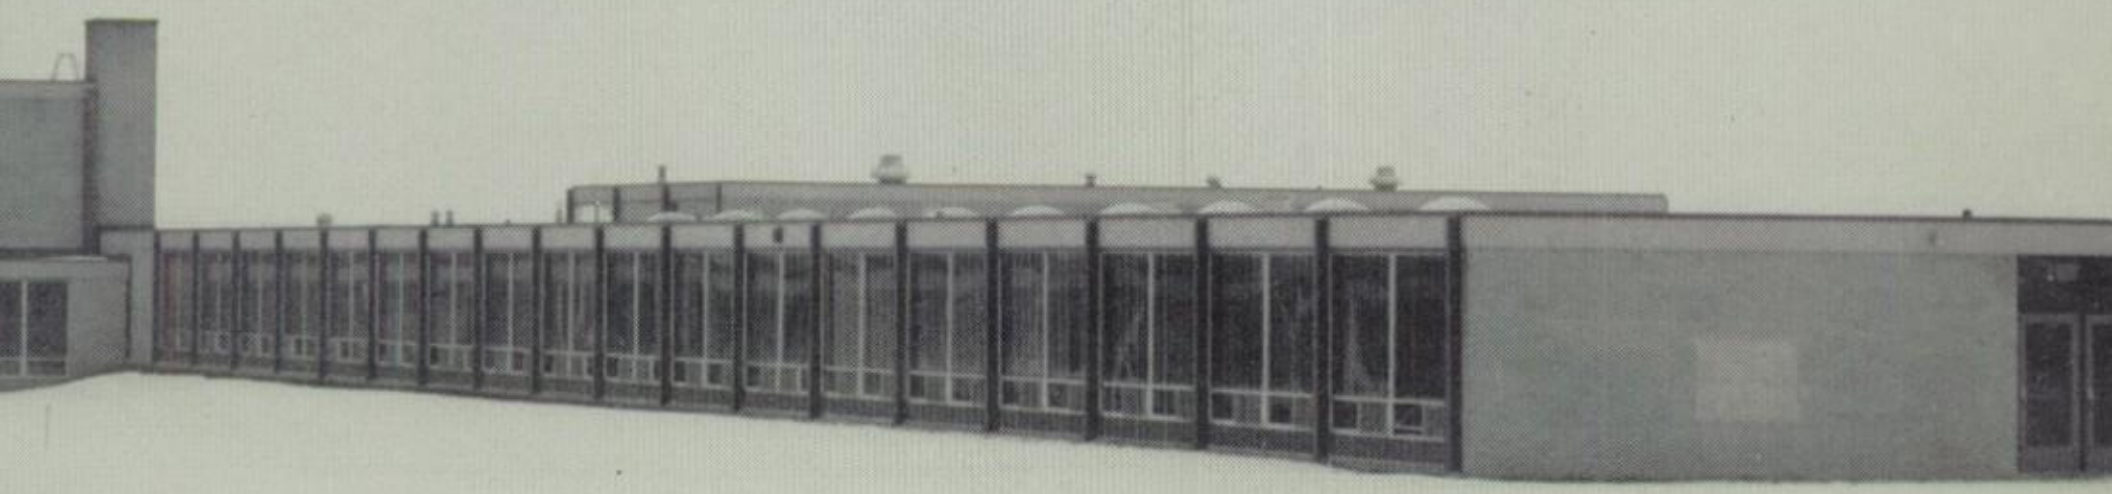
This Is Our World



This is our world, a place of learning, where things once unknown become familiar. For four years, our lives and the school are so close that they are almost one. And often, our own emotions are those of the whole school. When our team makes that extra effort and wins the game, our world is one of joy. At some other times, as when our fellow schoolmate Don Johnson passed away, our world is filled with sorrow.

When we come here as freshmen, we are uncertain. As sophomores, we gain the confidence that comes with experience, and when we are juniors and enter the realm of upperclassmen, we begin to realize how valuable our education is. When we become seniors, many of our future ideals have already been formed. At graduation we leave this world to enter another, and when we do, a part of our lives comes to a close. No matter what we do in later life, we will never be able to completely recapture the lives we had here.

Ours Is the Future

As we, the senior class of 1962, look back upon the three years of high school we have completed, we find our world filled with many happy memories.

Our freshman year was filled with new faces and new teachers. Although we had started the year with hesitation, we ended it with confidence, looking forward to our sophomore year.

As sophomores, our first duty was to elect class officers and to select our Student Council representatives. Later in the year we chose our Homecoming attendants. Spurred on by our victory in the "Little Eight," we eagerly anticipated our junior year.

Our junior year was filled with excitement and hard work. The money from our magazine drive enabled us to sponsor two dances, "Fantasy in Frost" and "Shrangi-la." The selection of class rings was another highlight of our busy junior year.

Our senior year rapidly became our busiest year. To start the year, we willingly posed for our senior pictures. A few weeks later, we elected George Needham, President; Dennis Erickson, Vice-President; and Gene Anderson, Secretary-Treasurer. To represent our class on the Student Council, we chose Kathy Holbert, Jeannette Keller, Ken Johnson, Doug Lakin, Susie Nelson, and Jamie Shouba. Rick Liehr and Peggy Kenyon were crowned King and Queen of the Homecoming Dance.

Now as we face graduation, we realize that we are at the turning point in our lives, where we must face the world with one aid, our high school education and all we have gained from it.

Our World of Activities

We have finally entered the world of upperclassmen. It is a world of decisions and responsibilities.

Our first undertaking was to elect our class officers. We elected Gene Steffes, President; Susan Bucek, Vice-President; Ceryl Hartman, Secretary; and Cheryl Hartman, Treasurer.

The next decision was the selection of our class rings. The design was chosen by our Student Council representatives who were Neil Allen, Janet Burke, Carol Kaus, Jim Meredith, Jim Rice, and Janet Strausberger.

Our attendants for the Homecoming Dance were Mari Strever and Dennis Harter.

Our responsibilities consisted mainly of sponsoring the Christmas Dance and the Prom. These were paid for with the money that we earned selling magazine subscriptions at the beginning of the year.

We would like to thank Mrs. Flint, Mr. Pintozzi, and Mr. Jakubka for their help and co-operation throughout the year.

Our World of Learning

Our world is one of learning and supervision. We have gained confidence and are now embarking upon a world of higher learning.

The most important thing we did was to elect class officers and Student Council representatives. Our class officers were Ron Berringer, President; Gary Nickels, Vice-President; and Sandy Dietterle, Secretary-Treasurer. Our Student Council representatives were Bill Blaisdell, Carol Hanscom, Jeff Kukuk, Sally Lehnert, Vicki Zerby, and Fred Zimmer.

Our attendants for the Homecoming Dance were Sally Lehnert and Paul Turk.

We would like to thank our advisers Miss Witherspoon, Mrs. Phillips, and Mrs. Bowman for joining in our world to make this year a success.

This Is Our World of Memories

Kaneland's traditional Homecoming weekend, sponsored by the Student Council, has rapidly become the highlight of the fall season.

The festivities begin with the lighting of the bonfire. Cheers and the introduction of the football players by the coaches add to the fun and excitement. To end the evening, the names of the King and Queen and their attendants are announced.

The next day, an enthusiastic crowd appears to cheer Kaneland on to victory in the all-important football game.

The transformation of the gymnasium with fall colors is the setting for the dance "Night of Knights." The excitement mounts until at last the King and Queen are crowned. As the melody of the last dance fades, the Homecoming weekend is over for another year, leaving many happy memories.

Night of January 16th

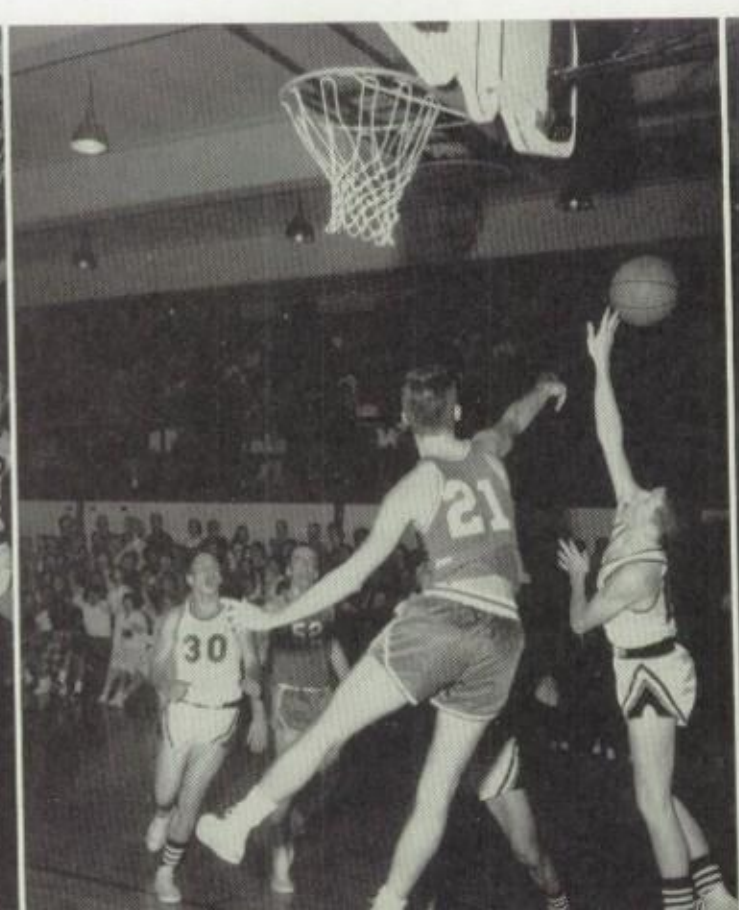
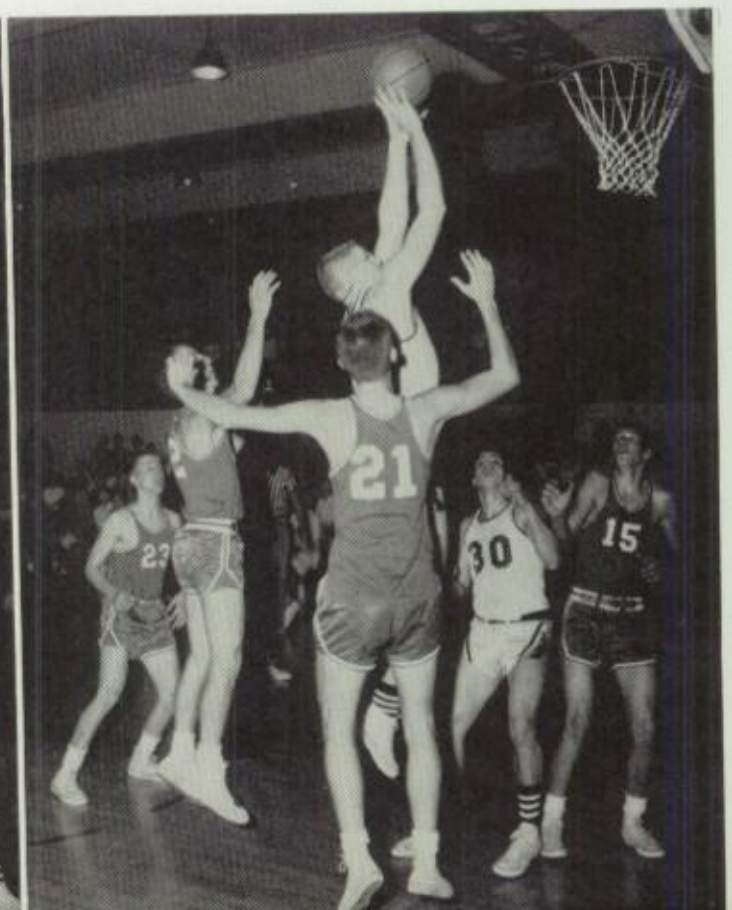
Little Eight Conference and Tournament Champs

The Kaneland "Knights" finished the 1961-1962 season with a 22-2 record. For the second straight year the "Knights" were undefeated "Little Eight" Conference and Tournament champs. They also won the Consolation Trophy in the Batavia Holiday tournament and the first place trophy in the DeKalb Regional Tournament.

Balanced scoring was a Kaneland trademark this year. Jamie Shouba, Bill Horn, and Doug Lakin were the top scorers. They were supported by Larry Herra, Ken Johnson, Dave Anderson, and Tony Garman.





Sophomores

The sophomores finished the season with a record of fifteen wins and five losses. They were the Little Eight Conference Champs.

Freshmen

After a slow start, the Freshmen steadily improved, compiling a thirteen win - ten loss record. They placed second in the Benjamin Franklin Toumament.

Cheerleaders

Each spring the varsity and frosh-soph cheerleading tryouts are held before the Student Council and six members of the faculty. Four cheerleaders are selected for each squad. During the summer the girls may attend cheerleading camp for five days. Here they are taught better methods of cheering and ways of encouraging sportsmanship in athletics.
